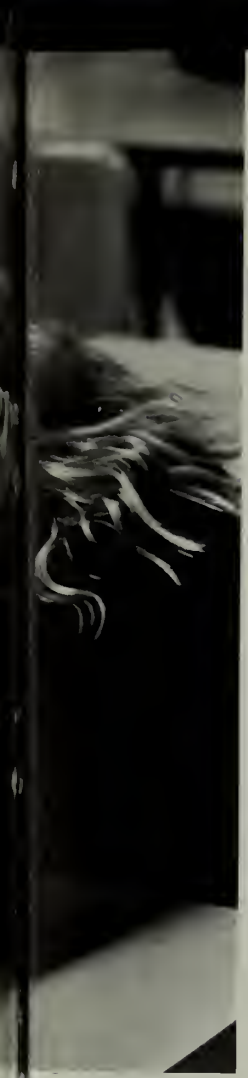
WHY DON'T YOU DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT?

"The world is passing through troublesome times. The young people of today think of nothing but themselves. They have no reverence for parents of old age. They are impatient of all restraint. They talk as if they alone know everything."

ANONYMOUS 13th CENTURY MONK



"Why should we knock under and go with the stream? . . . let us not be thrown off the track by every nutshell and mosquito's wing that falls on the rails . . . let us settle ourselves, and work and wedge our feet downward through the mud and slush of opinion, and prejudice, and tradition, and delusion, and appearance . . . till we come to a hard bottom and rocks on a place which we can call reality . . ."

Henry David Thoreau

Break away from the silent majority.

DON'T KNOCK IT TILL YOU'VE TRIED IT

DON'T KNOCK IT TILL YOU'VE TRIED IT.

"Many people see things as they are and ask "Why?" I dream of things that have never been and ask "Why not?"

Robert F. Kennedy

"Speak out against the madness, you've got to speak your mind now if you dare . . ."

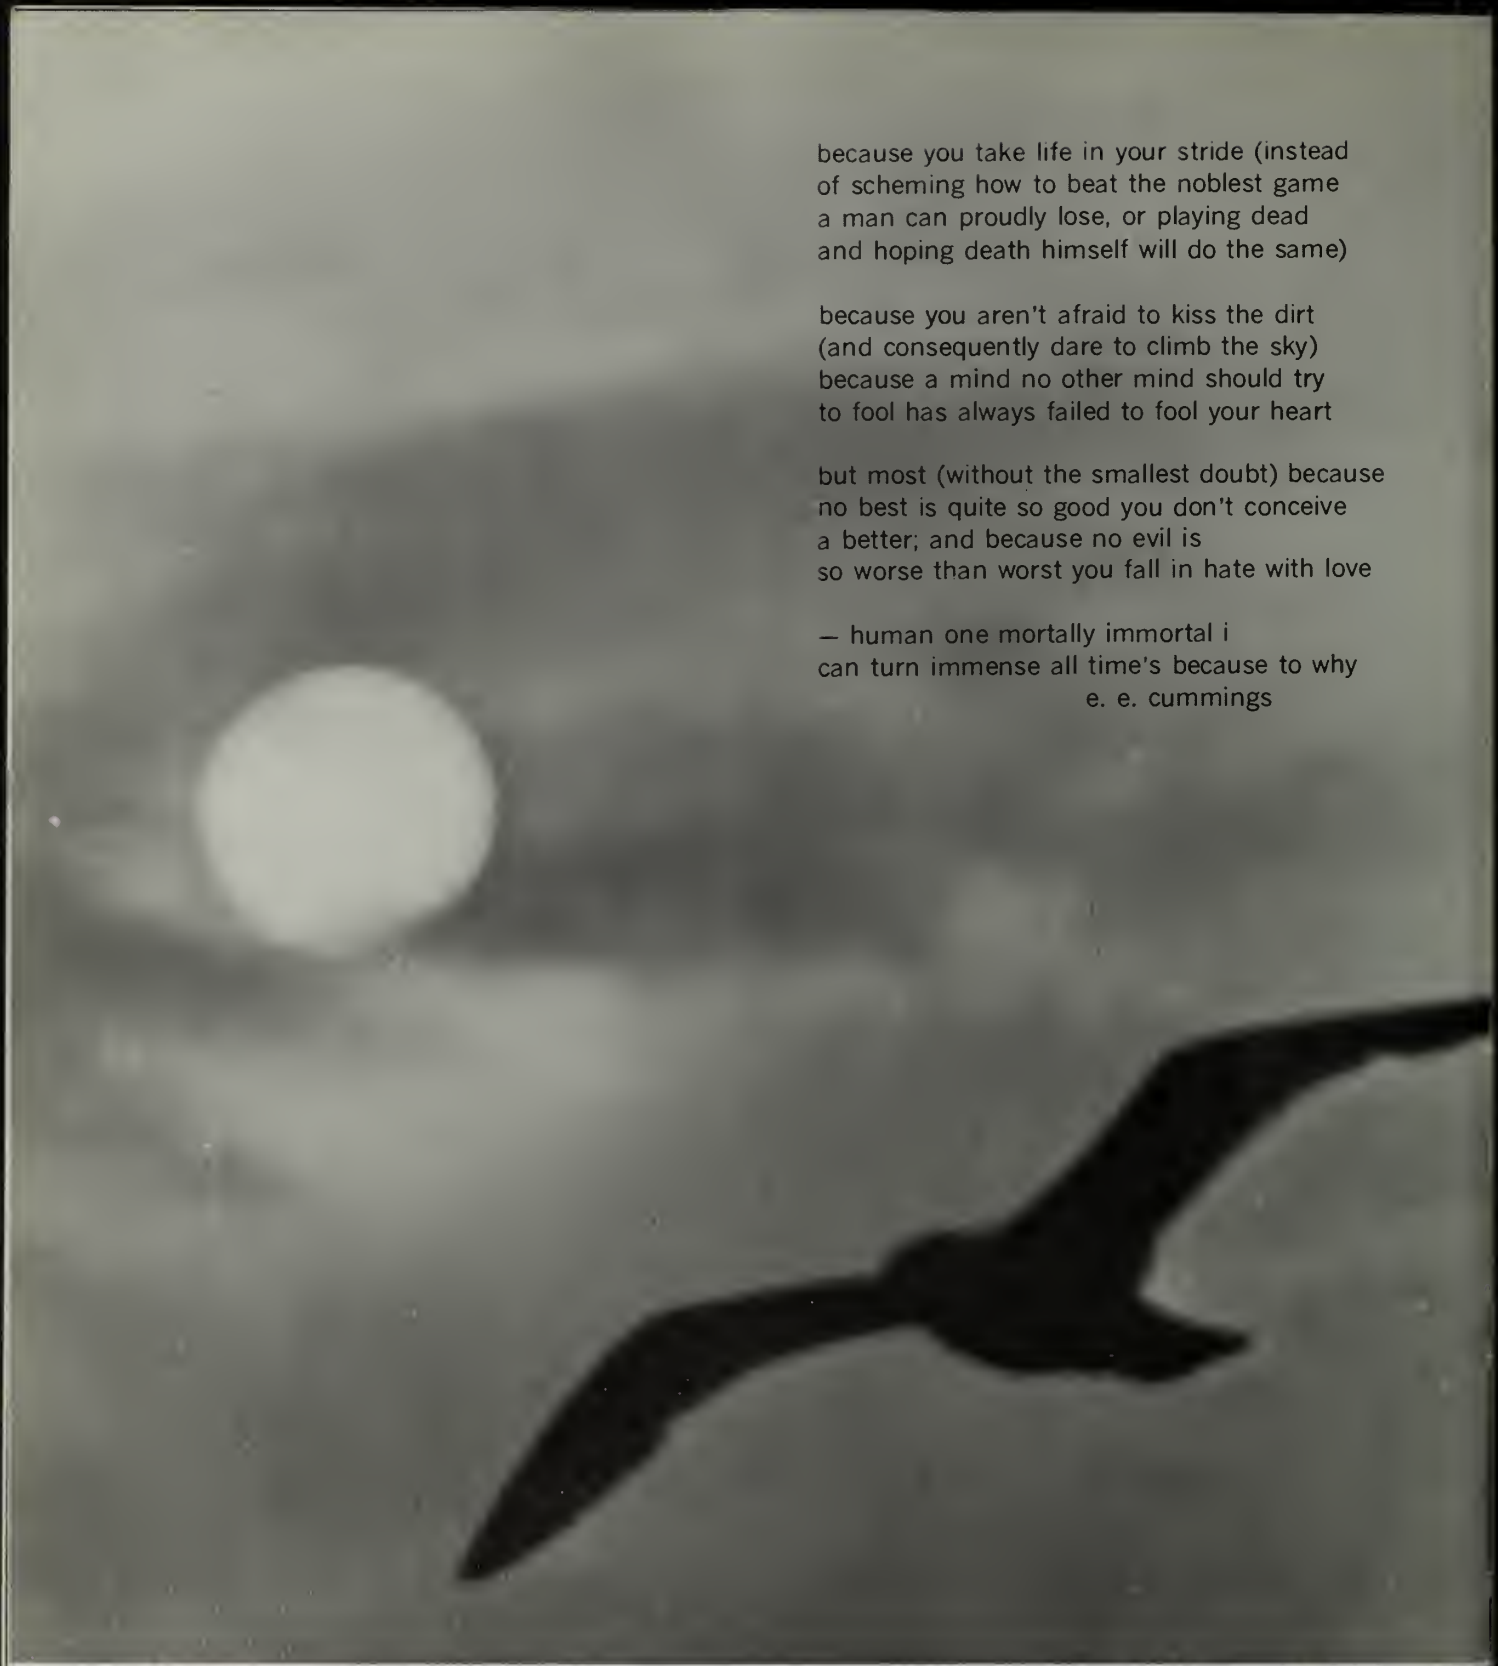
Crosby, Stills, and Young

". . . There will be time,
there will be time . . .
Time for you and time for me.
And time yet for a hundred indecisions
and for a hundred visions and revisions . . .
And indeed there will be time,
to wonder, "Do I dare?" and "Do I dare?"
Do I dare
Disturb the universe?"

T. S. Elliot

IT DOESN'T COME EASY

there's so much more to do . . .



because you take life in your stride (instead of scheming how to beat the noblest game
a man can proudly lose, or playing dead and hoping death himself will do the same)

because you aren't afraid to kiss the dirt (and consequently dare to climb the sky)
because a mind no other mind should try to fool has always failed to fool your heart

but most (without the smallest doubt) because no best is quite so good you don't conceive a better; and because no evil is so worse than worst you fall in hate with love

— human one mortally immortal i can turn immense all time's because to why
e. e. cummings

This is the way it is. We're into it.

Talk can arouse,
but of itself
it cannot heal.

To listen —
truly listen —
is to begin
the healing process
a wounded nation needs.

Listen to the wind.
Listen to the birds.
Listen to the trees.
Be still,
and listen to your God.

Above all, listen to your own conscience.
This is the beginning of listening.

Then —
listening to one person.
Even for five minutes.
Each day.

If each of us in the United States listened with all his might
for just five minutes
each day, wouldn't
we be a healthier nation
for it?

What this country needs
is a good five-minute
listener.

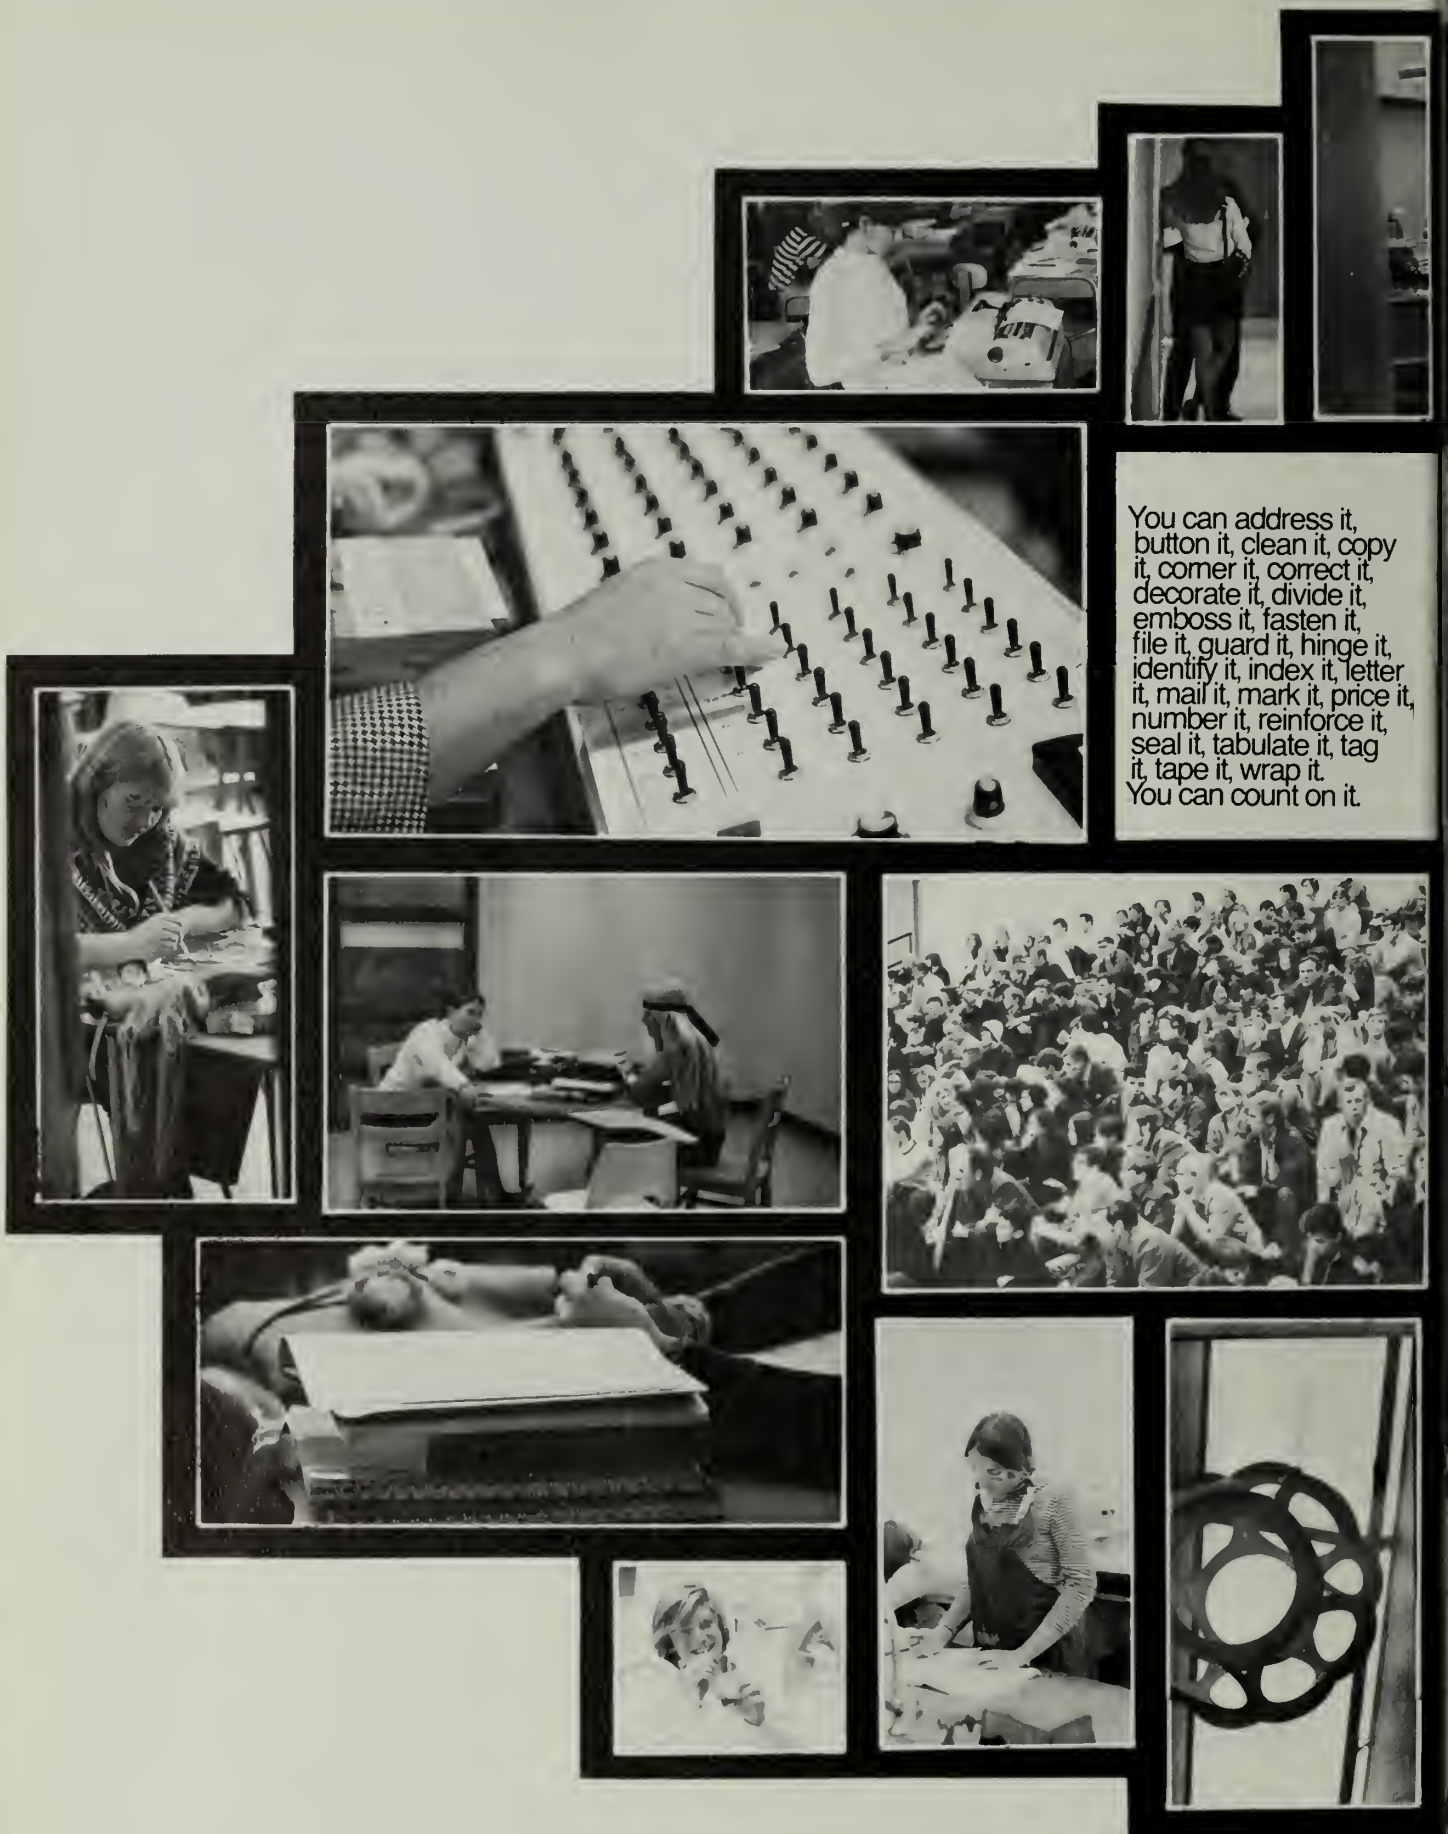
That's all.



You can address it, button it, clean it, copy it, corner it, correct it, decorate it, divide it, emboss it, fasten it, file it, guard it, hinge it, identify it, index it, letter it, mail it, mark it, price it, number it, reinforce it, seal it, tabulate it, tag it, tape it, wrap it.
You can count on it.

"To all the temples built by man of stone and other transient material: I wish to live to see them all crumble into birth and piles of light!

And to the temple where divinity resides even with all your newcomers: How quiet!

To divinity: (The socio-physio-spiritu-harmonious-concludus). It is a pleasure to know you!

And least and last, to the body, the substance, the hull, the distinguished main portion, the vessel of molecular pilots and passengers, and its power receiving, transmitting, perceiving, transcending equipment: The true temple, I've seen your face, the earth and its inhabitants, a magnanimous collection. Concentrate on your heart beats, regulate your breathing even so that flowers may live."

Where there's a wish there's a way

Have you got what it takes?

Freak the world...
before it freaks you!

Now never work.
Anything
is going to be all right

See it like it is

THE WORLD

TRY SOMETHING BETTER.

This is it! a new world

Now's the time to prepare

but try to tell someone.

Better ideas

WE CAN CHANGE

The Validation.

You can't run away

Create a total environment.

Turning a bleak outlook into a bright prospect

Isn't it time?

face the world
